

CAKE & COCKHORSE, VOLUME 13

Nos. 1 – 9, Autumn/Winter 1994 – Summer 1997

CONTENTS

1	‘Here Comes I...’ [Mummers], Christine Bloxham	2
	The Year of Yeomanry: 1794-1994, T.E. Nicholls	5
	Undergraduates, Wartime Vintage, Hugh White	18
	Exploring the Inns of Oxfordshire, Michael Hoadley	21
	More on Isaac Perrins (Prize Fighting), J.S.W. Gibson	26
2	The Romano-British Kitchen, Michael Hoadley	34
	North Oxfordshire Medieval Larders, J.P. Bowes	40
	A Romano-Celtic Religious Complex near Buckingham, Shelagh Lewis	44
	Tadmarton: A village in the making, Philip Arnold	52
3	Banbury and the Oxford Canal, Brian Roberts	66
	Early Victorian South Northamptonshire, John Clarke	77
	From a North Bar Window: A Child’s View of Banbury in the 1930s, John Dossett-Davies	89
4	A Bust Returns to Farnborough Hall, Jeffrey Howarth	102
	Miss Dolly Bromley’s School, Ken Jakeman	104
	A Barford Character: Alfred Charles Highton, E.R.C. Brinkworth	105
	Mrs Fitzherbert and Sons, Philippa Foord-Kelcey	108
	The Bagley Bell Foundry of Chacombe [includes list of churches with ‘Bagley’ bells, 1732], Betty D. Cameron	111
	A Tysoe Emigrant Writes Home, c.1827, J.P. Bowes	126
	Railway Mania [1844, includes a list of many Banburyshire people supporting the narrow gauge], J.S.W. Gibson	129
5	Miss Bromley’s School in the 1930s, John Cheney	138
	Two Thousand Years of Barford History, Ron Knight	144
	The Archaeologist’s View of Chastleton House, Gary Marshall	147
6/7	The Reverend John Lister, Rector of Croughton, 1848-1891, and his work for the poor in Croughton, A.J.B. Hawkins	166
	Within Living Memory: Middleton Cheney, Annie Jarvis	179

6/7	Chacombe Archaeological Survey, David Hall	186
	The History of Thorpe Mandeville, Maurice Cole	191
	The Banbury Gramophone Society, Walter C. McCanna	200
	Early Dissent in Horley, Hornton and King's Sutton, J.S.W. Gibson	202
8	The House at Pye Corner: George Macaulay, M.D.: An eighteenth century physician who lived in Banbury, James Wyatt Cook and Barbara Collier Cook	214
	Sir John Soane at Aynhoe Park, Ptolemy Dean	226
	Aynho Archaeological Survey, David Hall	239
9	Joseph Hawkesworth: A Parliamentary soldier, Nicholas Allen	254
	Filming at Broughton Castle, Mariette Saye and Sele	266
	Chapel Ascote: A deserted village, Linda Doyle	272
	Nell Bridge (Oxford Canal Co.), Adderbury, Hugh Compton	282