

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

In addition to those persons specifically mentioned in the text and in the footnotes I am indebted to Mr. D.M. Stephens of the Department of Geography, University of Birmingham, for the fair-drawing of the maps, and to Mr. R.C. Swift of the same Department for photographic work connected with the Illustrations; and, finally, to the people of Wormleighton who so readily gave me access to their farmsteads and fields, and answered questions so patiently.

H.T., 1965

Note. This article first appeared under the title 'The Lord and the Landscape' in The Transactions of the Birmingham and Warwickshire Archaeological Society, Vol. 80 (1965). We are most grateful to the Society for their permission to reprint it (in two parts) in Cake & Cockhorse.

As the article is reprinted in facsimile, the numbering of Plates follows the original publication, from 6 to 8. There are no Plates 1 to 5.