

Volunteer Role Profile

Gallery Host

Purpose of the role:

To support the daily opening for the PYE gallery by hosting exhibitions, including greeting visitors, checking tickets and engaging with visitors about the changing exhibition.

What the role involves:

- Welcoming visitors and checking tickets
- Helping with orientation and specific details about each exhibition
- Chatting to visitors about the exhibition
- Engaging visitors with interactive elements within the exhibition
- Dealing with customer's questions and queries
- Promoting other galleries and future exhibitions and events

Would suit someone who:

- Loves meeting and chatting to people
- Has confidence
- Has customer service skills
- Keen to learn
- Enjoys bringing museums/art to life
- Is interested in gaining experience in museums industry

Reporting to:

Karen Paul, Front of House and Retail Manager

Time commitment:

A regular commitment is best for this role.

A full induction and any specific training will be given.